Farming Goals Wednesday, April 1, 2016 Huskies have become a popular bird these days but unfortunately for our backyard populations, you have to keep a hawk dog like us around to help out. But their presence doesn't necessarily mean they're hunting. If I (Misty) had to guess I would have to say they are probably just looking for a way to help the other hawks that are having a hard time keeping a flock together. While I'm not keeping track of the number of hawks we've aided in the last decade, so far this year we've helped 810 sparrow hawks, more than 120 kestrels, 8 martens, 1 fox, 1 red tailed hawk and a merlin. Right now they are going up to the nest boxes at the Oakwood Ford Plantation but they might help out just about anywhere. Monday, January 25, 2016 A month ago, I took my dog to an emergency vet clinic because he was limping. After 4 hours of testing and x-rays and pain and blood work, she determined there was nothing physically wrong with him but just thought I should mention that she was having difficulty getting the lab work because he
