Concealed Weapons has an official, but players remain.Have we lost time in city parks recently? Or maybe the sidewalks around Central Library? I was talking to the father of one of my students the other day and he mentioned a city park where he's having a big party this weekend.

So naturally, I asked him to tell me what he was doing and the only thing he could think of was, "We're going to run around the trails, throw Frisbees at each other and watch for rattlesnakes!" I couldn't help but roll my eyes and think about how the parents these days are more concerned about the time their children spend playing video games or texting on their phones. In my youth, we played all the time outdoors. The goal wasn't to save time. It was to enjoy time together, with no electronic distractions. Here's what the Oak Park, Merrick, Delafield, Ill. Parks and Recreation department had to say about its favorite parks in their social media messages that provide a great bit of nostalgia: "For the younger guys, this kid is only 8, and goes to Oak Park & River Forest High School, but he takes to the outdoors like he was born in a woods. In his world, woods and trails are just as normal as his bedroom walls and the Super Mario Bros games on his Wii 3e33713323
