The first phase will include the creation of 35,805 square feet of streetscape improvements to First Street, in order to create a more pedestrian-friendly environment along the streetcar line. This will include: a new sidewalk on the Northwest side of First Street and a bike lane on West 11th Avenue to connect to the new public library. a new roadway and concrete curb that will create a new level for cars to enter the garage in place of the street. traffic calming measures, including 18-foot parking requirements, the extension of a series of bike lanes on the Southwest side of East 11th Avenue, and the addition of more pedestrian crossings. The streetscape improvements to First Street, combined with the new Library Square and the relocated Capitol/Canterbury Commons, will create a better sense of place and connectivity with other public spaces. The proposal also includes the creation of new garden spaces, all of which will be accessible to the public. The remainder of the project will focus
